Appellant had the opportunity to have lunch with her children during the day, but there is no evidence to suggest that it was at the church, that it was during his vacation or at the school. Appellant did not attend birthday parties at church and he was not entitled to sign the children up for school activities there. Although he had the children for dinner on Friday nights and on the weekends, he specifically asked the children's mother to please not call him at his home, but "don't tell the kids to call me here." A prison is not the same as a home. There is no evidence in the record to suggest that appellant was a family man. In light of the record before us, we conclude that the error was harmless. Disposition The judgment is affirmed. BUTZ ,
